

COLLOQUIUM ON THE FOUNDATIONS OF THE MARKET ORDER

The Colloquium on the Foundations of the Market Order provides an opportunity for academics interested in a free society and the principles of the market economy to discuss research. The colloquium meets Thursdays at 3 pm in room I 411 (institute building).

---

Fall/Winter 2017-18

October 19, 2017

The Weber-Wieser Connection: Early Economic Sociology as an Interpretative Skeleton Key
Stefan Kolev (Economics, University of Applied Sciences Zwickau)

November 16, 2017

The Courts as a Threat to Central Bank Autonomy: The Case of Colombia
Andrea L. Tapia-Hoffmann (Law, Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenberg)

November 23, 2017

Classical Liberal and Socialist Austrian Women Economists: Jewishness and Emancipation
Giandomenica Becchio (Economics, University of Torino)

December 7, 2017

Clearing the Market? Market Design from the Scholastics to Ordoliberalism
Philipp Rössner (History, University of Manchester)

December 14, 2017

The Epistemic Value of Freedom: What Hayek Failed to Convey to Habermas
Julian F. Müller (Philosophy, Brown University)

January 11, 2018

Capital Controls and Market Entry: Evidence from Emerging Market Economies
David Herok (Economics, Leipzig University)

January 18, 2018

Methodological Battles: How German Liberal Thought Forgot Legitimacy
Ekkehard Köhler (Economics, Walter Eucken Institute, Freiburg)

---

Colloquium Chairs: Andreas Hoffmann and Stefan Kolev

Organizer: Andreas Hoffmann, Leipzig University, Institute for Economic Policy

Registration: <http://www.leipzigcolloquium.de>